

Box Elder Behavioral Health LLC

Financial Responsibility Form

Box Elder Behavioral Health LLC requires a 24-hour notice for cancellation of any scheduled appointments in consideration for the time reserved for you. If this guideline is met, the client will not be responsible for any fees associated with the session. If the appointment is cancelled between 23 and 8 hours before its inception, the client is responsible for half of the session fee or $65. If an appointment is cancelled under four hours before it begins, the client is responsible for full payment of the session, which is $130. All payments for service should be made prior to the start of the therapy session via credit card, PayPal, Apple Cash or Venmo. If you are using insurance, any applicable copays will be determined after contact is made with insurance company and thereafter will be due before the session if it is required. I understand the financial responsibilities that I have to Box Elder Behavioral Health LLC when a counseling session is scheduled on my behalf and agree to abide by the aforementioned guidelines.

Printed Name

Signature

Date